9) NEW BUSINESS

10) PUBLIC COMMENT

Wendi Demerval - asked about the adaptation of the compensation plan. How it was developed, who are the parties, and what meetings took place? Where did the data from the report come from?

Selene Torres - Medrano - She wanted to touch base and continue the conversation about a community garden. The community needed space for learning and self sustainability.

11) DISCUSSION ITEMS

12) MAYOR'S MESSAGE

Thanked Councilors and City Staff for working hard and planting trees. She appreciated all of them.

13) COUNCIL INFORMATION & DISCUSSION

TenEyck - it was incredible how much has been accomplished in the last 3 years. The seeds that were planted long ago are finally coming to fruition. None would mature to harvest without the day in and day out operations. We were extremely blessed to have everyone sitting at the table. Can't wait to see what the next three years bring.

Chavez - thanked everyone for their hard work.

Wheeler - she was seeing a lot more activities coming up and was happy to see kids getting outdoors in the community.

Smith - echoed what Councilor TenEyck sentiments. The streets were clean and Umatilla was a great place to live.

Dufloth - proud to be here and be a part of this. This staff was forward thinking. Umatilla was finally becoming the polished jewel it needed to be. He was really proud of it. The community has come together like it never has before and there is more consistent communication. There was pride amongst our community that wasn't here 5-10 years ago. He thanked staff and Council for supporting local business.

14) ADJOURN

Daren Dufloth moved to adjourn . Corinne Funderburk seconded the motion. Voted: 6 - 0. Motion carried.

Mary Dedrick, Mayor
